COFFEE COUNTY COMMISSION INDICTED

The Grand Jury of the Elba Division of Coffee County returned indictments Tuesday against all six County Commissioners and the Probate Judge. The indictments were in connection with the condition of the county jail.

On September 5, 1979 the Grand Jury had reported, "Therefore, we, the Grand Jury of the Elba Division, Coffee County, Alabama, nominate the County Commissioners to make immediate preparations to either construct a new jail in Elba or improve the present facility so that they will conform with all federal regulations stated in recent court rulings." They gave them until December 1st to begin work on either solution. The group had been scheduled to reconvene on December 3, but conflicts in court calendars caused Circuit Judge Terry Butts to postpone the meeting for one week. The September 5th report indicated that if some solution had not been reached, the reconvened Grand Jury would "return indictments against each member of the County Commission and Probate Judge James Sawyer."

The indictment Tuesday read, "We, the Grand Jury at a special recessed meeting hereby report that we have returned one indictment involving seven defendants. And now having completed the duties that we understand we have, we ask that we be discharged, pending further orders of the court."

Done this 11th day of December, 1979."

The warrants served on each of the commissioners and the Judge read in part, "The Coffee County, Alabama jail at Elba is not constructed in manner prescribed by law and so strongly and securely built as to prevent the escape of prisoners confined therein and properly ventilated, which conditions have been allowed to continue unlawfully. They are instructed to appear in District Court on December 21, 1979.

Judge Gary McAliley said Wednesday morning he would expect lawyers for the defendants to ask for continuance since the indictments had been asked this Wednesday and noted he had researched the matter but very little. However, he did note that the section the group was charged under didn't spell out the signed appearance bonds of $500 each. Normally two signatures are required on such bonds, but an order late Tuesday by McAliley ordered the sheriff to release each one on his own signature. No member of the Commission was actually arrested; each was served the paper and signed the bond. Commissioner Rex Boutwell was not at home when it was first served on him but he made arrangements to sign his early Wednesday morning.

The charge is a misdemeanor and it is apparently unclear just what the punishment would be. McAliley was asked this Wednesday and noted he had researched the matter but very little. However, he did note that the section the group was charged under didn't spell out the

and 66; John Frank Hudson, 1974, 75, and 76; and Jerry Chandler, 1976, 77, 78, 79, and 80. Other Worshipful Masters since 1945 have included Melvin Boozer, Dock Padgett, J. T. Brooks, Dan J. Jacobs, Charles Burdick, Bill Pintick and Neil Henderson.

presidents from both clubs, Fred and Betty Lewis of Enterprise and on the right is Kenneth and Sara Strong of the Elba club.

Police Arrest Produce Thief Tuesday

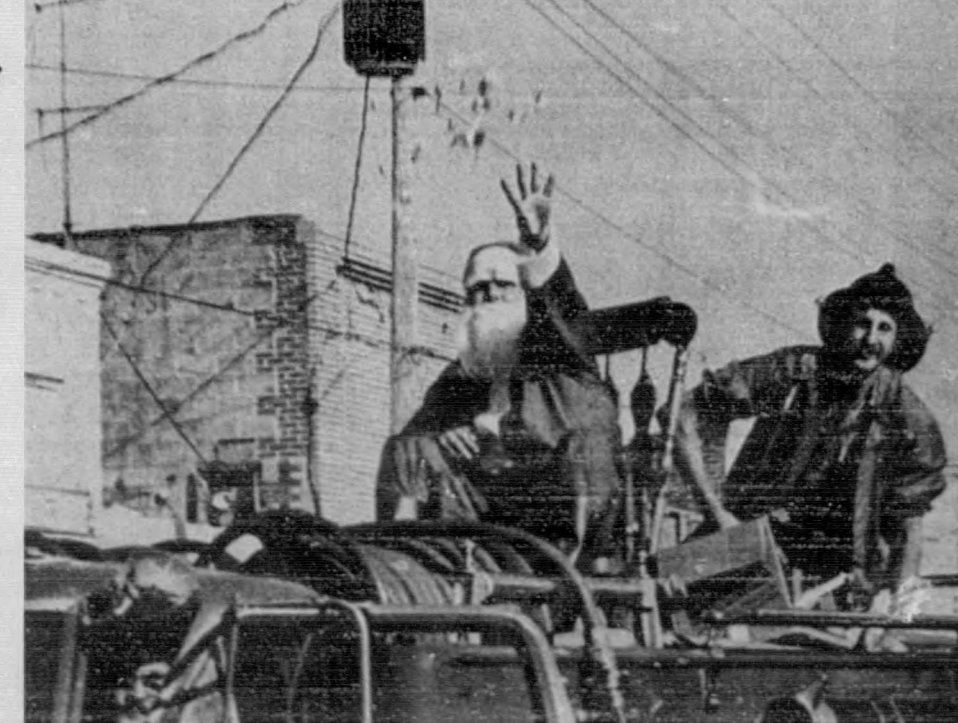

Elba Police Chief Max Rayborn reported an arrest in the case of stolen produce. The produce was reported stolen Monday morning and Rayborn said Tuesday he had arrested Gordy Houston of Elba in the case. Houston is in the Coffee County jail at press time. Rayborn explained that produce companies make their deliveries during the night or early morning hours before the stores open. This week someone apparently went to many of the stores, restaurants, etc. and picked up the fruits and vegetables. Rayborn said his department, along with Deputy Sheriff Ray Norris, had recovered some of the produce, but that apparently much of it had been thrown into the Pea River in an effort to conceal the evidence. Rayborn also reported that he and Norris have one signed confession and warrants for a second party for the arson burning of an automobile. The car, belonging to Tracy Fugit, was taken and burned behind a local church on the night of November 21st. At the time of the fire, officers said they had two strong suspects but were not ready to make any arrest until all the evidence was verified. Arson was apparent to investigating officers because the firebugs had apparently poured a "wick" of gasoline from the engine of the car to an area thirty feet away and then burn marks from the wick were plainly visible in the dry grass.

Landfill To Close On Holidays

The Coffee County Solid Waste Department will be closed Christmas Day and New Year's Day. Tuesday garbage will be picked up on Wednesday both weeks.

Santa Claus Comes To Town

Santa Claus was the highlight of the annual Jaycee Christmas parade last Saturday afternoon. For more pictures see page 12.

Health Dept. Certificates Prepared Daily

The Coffee County Health Department has made arrangements to keep qualified personnel at the Elba Health Department office each day to issue immunization certificates to school students whose records indicate they have had all the required shots.

Kenneth Ball of the County Health Department said Tuesday morning this was in addition to the extra days set aside to administer the shots. According to Ball, this action should benefit both those who need additional shots and those who don't need the extra shots by speeding up the long lines that have developed as Coffee County schools strive to comply with the law requiring students have the required shots in order to enter school.

Band Concert Set For Tonight

The combined Elba High Tiger bands will present a Christmas Concert on the square, on Thursday, December 13, beginning at 5:30. A number of Elba merchants will remain open at this time for the benefit of Christmas shoppers.

The meeting's first order of business was to open bids on a garbage body and a 2-ton truck. Bids came from Ingram Equipment Company - $9,351.50 (body); Summit Ford Truck Sales - $21,957.06 (both); Trusmore Industries - $26,350 (both); and Truck Equipment Sales - $10,513 (body).

The Commission voted to buy the truck and body from Truck Equipment Sales of Theodore. Sheriff Brice Paul told the Commission that local state troopers were having trouble getting gas after 5 p.m. because the Highway Department complex near Enterprise closed at 5 o'clock. He reported the troopers had to drive to Geneva to get gas (a 40-mile round trip) and he asked if the troopers could install a gas tank at the county shop in New Brockton. The tank would be underground with a pump and both would be placed out of the county's way. The troopers agreed not to seek liability from the county in case of damage to a car or injury, and this seemed to satisfy the entire Commission, who approved the request.

A problem concerning "jail-tis" was also discussed by Paul. Sheriff Paul reported he has to transfer prisoners to the doctor when they're sick, and most of the time "all they've got is a case of jailitis." Paul suggested getting a registered nurse to come to the jail twice a week to provide medical services, and then send them to the doctor if needed. The Commission instructed Sheriff Paul to look into the matter further and report back at another meeting.

Bankers Offer Reward In Kidnapping

Bankers from all across the State of Alabama have banded together to establish a reward fund in the amount of $5,000. This reward will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the individual or individuals responsible for the kidnapping of the wife of a prominent Montgomery banker.

If anyone has information regarding the kidnapping, please contact your local police department or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Old Contract Causes Headache For Commission

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, December 10, at the courthouse in Enterprise, and again discussed problems of acquiring an architect to design the new jail to be built in Enterprise.

The Commission has already decided to build the new jail behind the courthouse, but a Dothan architect contends he has a binding contract with the county, and he will be the man to design the facility. Joseph Donofrio and Associates, a Dothan firm, was contracted three years ago to design a proposed jail to be built in Elba. When the plans for the jail were abandoned, it was thought the contract was void. However, when it was announced that a new jail would be constructed in Enterprise, the firm stated it had a contract to design the facility.

A problem concerning "jail-tis" was also discussed by Paul. Sheriff Paul reported he has to transfer prisoners to the doctor when they're sick, and most of the time "all they've got is a case of jailitis." Paul suggested getting a registered nurse to come to the jail twice a week to provide medical services, and then send them to the doctor if needed. The Commission instructed Sheriff Paul to look into the matter further and report back at another meeting.

POOR ORIGINAL

BRAINSTORMS

WITH FERRIN COX

The main topic of conversation this week in Coffee County is the action of the Grand Jury in indictment of the County Commissioners and Probate Judge. We don't have any idea what the outcome will be or if the jail will ever meet federal guidelines, but promise it will be interesting to all citizens of Coffee County and a bunch who ain't part of Coffee County. Our opinion is that the commission was during the Grand Jury to act, cause of all the meetings we attended or read about, the Grand Jury mandate to upgrade or build a new jail was never discussed. Occasionally someone would mention it, but not much more.

The puzzling thing to ye ole editor is that some folks are proud of the decision to build a jail in Enterprise, but discount the fact that that law they are quoting also applies equally to the Elba division (that is, if it is the law at all).

There is an uproar at the state level also as reports surface that colleges are "not-holding" money and telling the legislature they are broke. We have heard such stories for years and still don't know if they are true, but do know it upsets college folks to accuse them of hoarding funds. Keeping it in perspective, possibly some of this money is money left to the school by families who have died, etc. and is for certain purposes and can't be spent for just anything. We surely don't know.

The Elba Christmas parade last Saturday afternoon was great. Efforts have been underway for several years to promote this particular parade and it is just beginning to bear fruit. We can't give the Jaycees all the credit but since their first time of helping was also the first real successful Christmas parade, we must give them a lot of credit. The visiting bands and the folks from Goodman were a big plus also. Already plans are underway for next year's parade and there is a promise of more of the big, highly decorated floats. Contact has already been made with a professional float maker to supply floats for the Elba parade.

We have heard a rumor that Santa will return to Elba Friday and make an appearance at the Elba Elementary School. Efforts to confirm this report were unsuccessful but "usually reliable sources" still say they know for sure he will be there.

It is hard to understand why school teachers (AEA members) are turning up their noses at the new state law that allows the state to pay their liability insurance. Previously the AEA was the only practical source for the insurance and it was a big selling point for joining AEA. Now they are voting that the free insurance from the state is not what they want. Personally it sounds like AEA Executive Secretary Paul Hubbard has done another great selling job... this time on his own members. I guess the strike at AEA headquarters is still going and maybe Hubbard had better solve that before he takes on any more projects.

The Elba school board is easing forward with plans for building a new wing on the Elba High School. Fears of high cost and not enough money almost leave them with their feet stuck in the cement, but hopefully they are moving carefully ahead and one day we will see construction start (Not before summer of 1980 at best).

It is the type thing that will make Coffee County one group if anything can. I am talking about the recent joint gathering of the Elba and Enterprise Rotary Clubs with their wives. We are convinced that this type meeting among civic clubs, churches, etc. will let us all (Elba and Enterprise folks) realize that the folks on the opposite side of the county are, by and large, good folks that we enjoy being with at work and at play. This group met at the Bonaparte and we are already looking forward to an invitation to join our Enterprise friends at one of their events where they dress up and take their wives out on the town.

The Elba Water and Electric Board is in a bind. They want and need to extend water lines to much of the rural area around Elba... folks who are having trouble with their pumps going dry. The cost of such action is terrible and the feds have said we don't qualify for a grant because we have managed our affairs so well in the past that we are not head-over-heels in debt. Tuesday night they decided to try again to get some federal grant money to install the system.

The four way stop at the city hall corner is still new to most of us who are accustomed to driving in Elba. Ye ole editor hereby issues a warning to all who enter that intersection... there are others like myself who forget old habits very slowly, so be doubly careful for the next year when you drive into that intersection.

Letter To The Editor

THERE ARE STILL GOOD PEOPLE LEFT IN ELBA, ALABAMA

On a hot and sunny day, a group of teachers from Lowndes County were traveling from a teacher workshop held in Enterprise in late summer '79. We missed the road and came to Elba.

We drove around the city of Elba, and finally we decided to stop on the streets almost in town, and asked for information. A very friendly white lady gave us directions, by getting into her car and led us to the proper intersection to get us on our merry way.

Although late, but the teachers from Lowndes County would like to take this opportunity to say Thanks to this friendly lady, and THANK GOD, there are some good people still left in Elba, Alabama.

Sincerely,

Lowndes County Teachers

The Enterprise Wildcats climaxed a super season last week when they whipped Vestavia Hills to win the State 4A football championship. The Wildcats represented their city and county well, and everybody in Coffee County is proud of them. I don't consider the Big 10 a powerful conference; just because you win the conference doesn't mean you're great. Ohio State won a lot of games in '77 and '78 too, but when they went to bowls they got beat as did co-power Michigan.

True, the Crimson Tide didn't play a real tough schedule, but they led the nation in several categories, and proved deserving of the Number 1 ranking, no matter what the "Poll Cats" say. I don't come back, but give 'em a chance!

I went to the New Brockton football banquet Monday night and had a good time. The banquet lasted four hours, but everyone had a lot to celebrate and they did a first-class job. Next week we'll have a complete story on the banquet, complete with pictures. I'd like to thank the people at Brockton for their hospitality, and congratulate the town on a fine season.

New Hope Bops New Brockton 82-62

The New Hope Wildcats pulled away in the closing minutes to claim a solid 82-62 win over the New Brockton Junior Gamecocks, in New Hope.

The win upped New Hope's record to 3-2, while Brockton fell to 1-2. Neither team could find the range early in the game, and after one quarter of play New Hope held a slim 13-6 advantage. The Wildcats began pressing in the second quarter, and took advantage of numerous turnovers to grab a 32-20 halftime lead. Brockton led the lead to 50-41 after three quarters and pulled within 6 points with 4:00 left, but New Hope pulled away late to take the win 82-62.

Darrin Johnson scored 41 points to lead New Hope, while Robby Hall added 12, and Ronald Parker hit 10. Willie Sherman pulled down 18 rebounds for the Cats. Bernard James and Jerome Nelson scored 26 and 18 points, respectively, for New Brockton.

Good health is something that is often taken for granted. Too often, an individual is not aware of how precious good health is until he has lost it. There are some illnesses which strike without recognizable signs. For this reason, every person should have a checkup regularly.

It would be much better to have a checkup every year of your life and never find any health problem than to have a checkup too late. Elba Christmas Tournament To Start Tonight With 2 Games

The 1st annual Elba Christmas Tournament will start tonight (Thursday) at the Elba High gym with 4 teams competing. Participating in the tournament are Ozark, New Brockton, Elba, and Pike County. Ozark, a 4A school, has to be the favorite, and brings to town an excellent 6-2 record. The Eagles, coached by Cecil Skinner, play a ball control game and have a patient team that always plays well. New Brockton, a 2A power, brings in a 5-2 slate and has already won the Ashford Tip-Off Tournament. The Gamecocks of Coach Charles Cole play an exciting brand of ball and are considered one of the top 2A teams in the state. Pike County (Brundidge) got off to an 0-4 start, but beat Troy last week for its first win, and should be fired up. Coach Mance Daughtry's Bulldogs have 4 starters back from a year ago, and once they regain their form, they will be hard to beat. Elba is off to a 3-1 start, its best in many years, and has a good shot at winning its own tourney. Coach Jerry Kirkland's squad plays a fast-paced game and is always exciting. Games will be at 6:00 and 7:30 both Thursday and Friday nights, and everyone is urged to attend.

This Christmas, give the gifts that'll have everyone talking.

Check the halls, the bedrooms and the den with phones from your GTE Phone Mart. And you'll hear about it all year long. A phone is the perfect gift because it's practical (they'll use it every day), yet a luxury. What could be more luxurious than an elegant Cradephone in the bedroom? Or a sleek Stylene phone next to the living room sofa? Put Mickey Mouse under the tree, and just watch the reaction. Or see what happens when you give an old friend an old-fashioned Cradephone in the bedroom. You'll find enough phone styles and colors to suit everyone's merry Christmas. At the GTE Phone Mart. And it's a lot closer than the North Pole. Put a new Phone in your life.

1979-80 Who's Who

BY: SANDRA MOBLEY

Have you ever wondered how the people in Who's Who are selected? Here's how it's done. On Monday morning, December 3, 1979, ballots were given to each student in grades 9-12. Each person chose one boy and one girl for each division out of his own class. Then the ballots were collected and counted. The winners from each of the four grades were put on another ballot. On Tuesday morning each student chose one boy and one girl for each division out of the class winners. This was the last voting for Who's Who. The winners are: CUTEST - John David Parker and Judy Helms; MOST DEPENDABLE - Kim Leverett and Sheila Kelley; MOST TALENTED - Bobby Berry, Robbin Day and Sharon Arnold; WITTIEST - Danny Miller and Missy Duncan; MOST LIKELY TO SUC-

Christmas Concert Planned

BY: MARY DAVIS

For the last two weeks the Rebel Band members have been working on music for their upcoming Christmas concert. They would like to invite anyone who would enjoy it, to come. As of yet the date has not been set. The band will be planning a Spring Concert to be held later in the year.

The ZCHS Rebel Marching Band had an enjoyable time December 8, 1979, participating in the annual Christmas parade in Elba. It was a first for the band and a very good experience also.

But "Bear" Bryant, of Alabama, realized a spark of hope for Boyd, and had a different message; he told Boyd that he was one of the South's finest young tacking dummies!

Boyd was reportedly pressed into a starting role as Alabama's head dummy. His major responsibility was to serve as a "VERY" dispensable "tackler" at Bama practice. Congratulations, Boyd! Someone finally recognized your TRUE talent!

But, seriously, while Boyd may not be THE greatest athlete ever at ZC, he is one of the most dedicated. He truly desires to play for Alabama, and if I had a guess, I would say "Watch out for BOYD DEAL!" in a few years!

Soil & Water Conservation News

The migrations of doves and waterfowl remind us that the hunting season is upon us again, it's timely that we who have been blessed with the freedom to hunt reflect on our responsibilities as hunters, hunter safety coordinators and members of the Game and Fish Division reminded hunters this week.

He said hunters should remember their relationship with the landowner on whose property they hunt. Respecting the property of others as you would your own and leaving it cleaner than you found it is important. Picking up any trash you might find is helpful to the landowner.

Thornhill said we should remember our debt to hunters who have gone before us whose license fees, personal efforts and dedication to the sport have made it possible for us to enjoy the freedom that is now threatened.

Some factions, however, well-intentioned, would not only stop hunting as we know it, but they would also like to take away our right to own and use firearms. Hunters should take a stand in defense of this right.

Hunters are stewards of wildlife. As such they should be satisfied with less than the limit. They should protect game from those who would abuse, debate or deplete it.

Above all hunters should conduct themselves as if they were in a store. They should not regret, only fond memories of time well-spent in the woods and hunting dogs.

Hunters are again cautioned to exercise extreme care when going afield. During the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, the names of students on the Dean's List at Enterprise State Junior College for the fall quarter have been released.

Dr. Joseph Talmadge, academic dean, says that for a student to qualify, he or she must be enrolled full-time and maintain a B-plus (3.50 on a 4.00 scale) or better GPA.

TOGETHERNESS What a marvelous thing it is to work in a county as county agent where you have dedicated and cooperative farmers, business and other citizens. I was reminded of this past week during the observance of National Farm-City Week. You can't have anything but a good feeling about the relationship between our farm people and our city people.

The Elba Rotaries, the Elba Lions Club, the Enterprise Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis Clubs and others invited farmers in for their weekly meetings plus all the special events that were held during the week.

I may not get to work as county agent but 15-16 more years, but having a good experience last week makes me wish I could be county agent forever.

COMING EVENTS County Extension Council Meeting - Monday, December 10, 6:00 p.m. - Community Room, New Brockton. Pork Industry Conference - December 13 and 14 - Haley Center (near football stadium) Auburn University. Dan Presley will be attending. Anyone interested in going may call

Many brochures were available which included all the recipes which were sampled, instructions on how to clean silver, and care of holiday plants.

The table decorations were those which could be developed or made from household items. For example, an ice bucket was filled with pine cones and silver. Christmas balls, hurricane lamp chimneys were filled with homemade bread and fruit.

If you would like to have a copy of our holiday booklet of recipes, please call the Extension Office at 894-5596.

TOGETHERNESS What a marvelous thing it is to work in a county as county agent where you have dedicated and cooperative farmers, business and other citizens. I was reminded of this past week during the observance of National Farm-City Week. You can't have anything but a good feeling about the relationship between our farm people and our city people.

Frank Brith, Treasurer, for her prize winning pie. She will represent the Peanut Industry for 1979-80, including a visit with Governor Fob James at the Capitol in Montgomery; an all expense paid trip for her and Mr. Sessions to the nation's Farm-City Week in Washington, D. C., and on to New York City for the National Promotion; Peanut meeting will be held December 17, at the Farm Complex Community Room.

no problem when Jim Walter builds!

Regardless of what you've heard or read in the news, if you own property, mortgage financing is no problem when Jim Walter builds for you. Jim Walter has PLENTY of readily available dollars to build new homes for his customers. In addition, to help keep the cost of owning a new home as low as possible, Jim Walter does NOT add "points" or "closing costs" that others charge to further inflate the price you pay.

Jim Walter offers more than 20 LOW COST homes that can be built on your property to almost any stage of finish, from the shell home to one that is 90% complete. This means that you'll have an opportunity to cut an already low price even more, simply by doing some of the inside finishing work yourself. Do the electrical work, install the plumbing, finish the wallboard. You tell us how much you would like to do. The more you do, the more money you'll save. And, with today's high-spiraling costs, everyone wants to save money.

For example, it is about 17 miles from Enterprise to Elba. At 60 mph, which is breaking the speed law, it would take 17 minutes. At 45 mph it would take about 23 minutes. So, by driving 60 rather than 45 you gain six minutes. So what? You have made the trip at the slower speed much more safely. Every driver needs to start looking on an automobile as a hunk of metal, fabric and rubber which is dangerous. It is just like a bullet which you can point or direct to almost any direction. It is up to you! Speed is the problem. Each individual driver in this county should remember that he is guiding a bullet.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Lula Mae Stewart Wilson

located on State Road 125 on the Elba-Brundidge Highway, as "neat and tidy as a pin."

The Wilson's children are: Grover, who lives at Roston, and has been with Dorsey Trailers for 24 years. He is married to the former Genevieve Heaton, who was a native of Roston. She works at the shirt factory in Brundidge, and they are the parents of three children and grandsons to 2 children.

Charles lives in a mobile home which is located in his father's back yard, and is employed as a car salesman in Luverne. His wife is the former Jane Johnson of Henderson. She works with Hudson Industries in Troy, and she and Charles have two children.

Mrs. Jerry (Sherry) Anderson lives in Montgomery, where she is employed with an insurance company there. Her husband is retired from the Air Force, and they are the parents of two children.

The fourth, and last, child of Miss Mae is her daughter, Mrs. Johnnie Marie Cotter, who is married to Lamar Cotter. Mrs. Cotter works at Alator in Troy and Mr. Cotter is employed with the State Highway Department. They are the parents of two children and have three grandchildren.

Incidentally, Mrs. Cotter was kind enough to write to Miss Mae, and she was a young mother and spent time outdoors with her children, hanging out her wash, and enjoying her favorite hobby, which was working in her yards and tending her flower.

Now that we know how Miss Mae LOOKS, let us find out something about the BACKGROUND of this sweet lady.

Miss Mae was born March 25, 1906, which makes her a young 73 years of age. She was a resident of Elba, Alabama, in the Antioch Community. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Stewart. Mr. Stewart was a farmer. Her mother's maiden name was Mrs. Margaret Floyd, so we see that Miss Mae was named after her mother. Both her parents were born and reared in Pike County.

Miss Mae had four brothers and two sisters. Her brothers are now deceased. But before their deaths, Henry was a resident of Phenix City, Alabama, in Brundidge; Gordon died at a young age, but lived in Pike County with his parents until his death; and John David died at birth.

Miss Mae's two sisters are Mrs. T.T. Turner (Beale), who was a resident of New Hope Community before her death; and Miss Carrie Lee Stewart, who is now retired. Miss Carrie made her home with Miss Mae and her husband before Miss Mae came to the nursing home to live. She now lives with one of her brother's wives in Troy.

In 1926, January 27, to be exact, Miss Mae wed Mr. Willie Wilson. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary three years ago and a 54th anniversary is "just around the corner" for them. Mr. Wilson is VERY devoted to Miss Mae; and according to one of the nurses at the nursing home, he "visits her religiously - almost every day."

Mr. Wilson's parents were Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Wilson. Mrs. Wilson was Minnie Bragg prior to her marriage. They were both born and reared in lower Pike and upper Coffee Counties; and in their later years, they resided with a son whose home was located in Andalusia. Mr. Wilson was a farmer.

During Mr. and Mrs. Wilson's married life, Mr. Willie farmed for many years; worked for the county on the roads; drove a school bus; worked for the State about eight years; and now he is the barber-in-residence on Saturdays only at Wallace Purvis' store on the Jack route. Other than his "barbering" on Saturdays, Mr. Willie is retired. And, well he should be, we think, for he has worked hard enough and frequently enough in his younger days to warrant a rest now! Don't you all heartily agree?

Miss Mae has always been a housewife, keeping the yard and her home, which is Miss Mae belongs to St. John's Baptist Church in Tarrant, and played the organ for the church during her "growing-up" years.

She came to the Elba Nursing Home from the Ozark Nursing Home, where she had been for three weeks, about the middle of May, 1979. Her roommates are Mrs. Ethel Moore, Mrs. Eloise McKenzie (whom we met only last week), and Miss Maxine Barnes (whom we also met recently in our articles).

Hope you enjoyed meeting Miss Mae. Visit the nursing home real soon!

Three Seasons Study Club Meets

The Three Seasons Study Club met on Monday night, December 10, in the home of Mrs. Rebecca Flowers, with Mrs. Gloria Moseley serving as co-hostess.

An inspiring Christmas devotional was given by Mrs. Judy Boswell at the beginning of the meeting. The members present were then served a refreshment plate by the hostesses.

The refreshments as well as the decorations for the evening followed a festive Christmas theme, and every one enjoyed the merriment of the occasion.

A short business meeting was then held during which time plans were made for the annual Christmas project sponsored by the club each year. Also, plans were made to send gifts to "Eddie and Abbie," two patients at Tarwater Development Center in Wetumpka, Alabama, whom the club sponsors year-round.

Members of the club who participated in the Christmas parade in Elba this year were thanked for their efforts in making the parade a success. After other short matters of business were discussed, the meeting was adjourned.

Right here and now, while it is on our minds, we'd like to publicly say a big ole Southern "thank you" to ALL the relatives of ALL the nursing home residents who have been so kind, helpful and gracious to us in our humble endeavor to introduce you to our beloved Sr. citizens at the Elba Nursing Home. Thank ALL of you for your information, and for the time to talk with us and answer our questions!

Miss Mae is the proud grandmother of nine grand children and five great-grand children; but soon-to-be 6, Mrs. Cotter informed us.

A very favorite food of Miss Mae's is chicken stew. And, according to Mrs. Cotter, "she always liked bright colors."

"She kept her yard and her house and cooked, cleaned and cared for us children," said Mrs. Cotter, when asked Miss Mae's hobbies. As stated earlier, working in her yard was Miss Mae's hobby. A nice tribute to Miss Mae was given to her by her daughter, and we quote her: "She was a good, loving mother, and a strict one."

Chad Eric Hall will celebrate his 4th birthday soon. This birthday will be a special one for Chad because he will be celebrating with Santa and lots of little friends. He will also receive toys and surprises.
